

Week of March 28,2011

Dear Parents,

REMINDER: FRIDAY IS A HALF DAY.

REMINDER: PLEASE SEND IN YOUR PICTURES OF CENTENNIAL FARM. OPEN HOUSE IS NEXT WEEK, APRIL 7 AND I WOULD LIKE TO HAVE A PICTURE OF EACH CHILD AT THE FARM FOR OUR BULLETIN BOARD.

Here is an overview of this week:

Religion: We will continue to talk about the events leading up to Easter.

Animal of the Week: Farm animals.

Nursery Rhyme: "Little Boy Blue."

Math: Addition up to five.

SRA READING: We will be introducing predecodable# 15. Continue to have your child review their sight words and previous predecodables at home. We will also learn the sound of W and identify the final long vowel sound in words.

SAVE THE DATE: Our end of the year play, "Animal Alphabet" will be held on Friday, June 3, (half day). More information regarding the play will be given to you in May.

Have a great week!
