FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

On every sports team, the players are assigned roles based upon their individual talents as well as upon the needs of the team. For example, in football each team has eleven players on the field for each play. Every one of those players has a specific job to perform during that play. If each player executes his job well, the team is likely to succeed. If not, it will likely fail. Some positions tend to garner a lot of attention; others are rarely noticed. Nonetheless, no team would prefer to play with only the five or six “stars” and leave the other players on the sidelines. Each of the eleven players is essential to the smooth operation of each play.

In his letter this week, St. Paul tries to explain this concept to the Corinthians. First, he wants them to know that every Christian is essential to the success of Christianity as a whole. While none of us can transform water into wine or cure the blind or raise people from the dead (only Jesus has that role), we each have a vital and essential role on this team. That’s why the Holy Spirit has bestowed upon each of us one or more very specific gifts which we need to use in the service of our Lord and His Church (our fellow teammates). Whether we are great speakers, compassionate consolers, passionate givers, or those devoted to prayer, we are essential to the success of our Church. It’s not just Pope Francis or Bishop Vann or the priests or the religious that are capable of serving, inspiring, or leading people. With the gifts of the Holy Spirit, every single one of us is able to contribute to the greater good of the team as a whole.

When Jesus formed His team, He surrounded Himself with twelve very average men. From our human perspective, we might even think that they had no obvious skills or talents that would enable them to even contribute to the formation of a church, much less to lead that effort. Yet, Jesus saw things differently. He chose each one carefully to fit a particular need. Even Judas, who ultimately betrayed Him, was chosen specifically for that role. Similarly, when He chose Saul to join the team He was well aware of Saul’s hatred for the team. Nonetheless, He saw strengths and talents that would overshadow Saul’s flawed nature. In each case, He used both talents and flaws to form a strong and successful team.

Despite the fact that the Holy Spirit has given each one of us unique talents, many of us are reluctant to use those talents in the service of the Church or of our Lord. We are content to simply go through the motions of being Christians. We’re unwilling to step up and do the job that our particular talents would enable us to do. We’re happy to stand or sit on the sidelines, not really contributing to the success of the team. We might be called, “Talented, but Lazy.”

On the other hand, some of us recognize our talents but we are much more impressed with the talents of those around us. In fact, we are jealous of those on the team who appear to have more talent or who get more recognition. As a result, we are insulted and decide not to contribute our talents to the team because we feel that our efforts are largely unnoticed. After all, if we are not going to be rewarded for sharing our talents, what’s the point?

Finally, some Catholics are upset by the way that the team is managed or by the behaviors of some of the other team members. In those situations, some actually “quit” the team. We forget that our talents are gifts of the Spirit to be used in the service of the Church. Instead, we decide to take our talents and go home. Sadly, within the United States, about half of those who have been baptized as Catholics have “quit” the team. Of course, through their Baptisms, they are never really off the team. Yet, they abandon the team and worship somewhere else (like a player from USC going to play for UCLA. It’s still football, but...). Others stop worshipping entirely. These talented “former” team members are young and old alike. They come from all walks of life. Our mission is to encourage them to once again share their talents for the good of our team!

I am not trivializing Paul’s important message by using a sports analogy. It’s just a clear and simple way to convey his point. I pray that as you come to the end of this reflection that point will be both obvious and meaningful: The Spirit has given each of us unique talents to use in the service of our Lord and His Church. We shouldn’t be jealous of or worry about those who may be more or differently talented than we are. We shouldn’t worry about whether we are recognized or rewarded for sharing our talents. We shouldn’t quit and go somewhere else or stop worshipping entirely because we are disenchanted or troubled. When we are down, the members of the team use their talents to help us. Similarly, we are asked to use our Spirit-given talents the benefit of the team. It is up to each of us to embrace the gifts of the Spirit and to use them to the fullest extent of our abilities.

Fr. Mike

FAITH FORMATION & SACRAMENTS

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Every Wednesday from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm we have a Bible Study for all high school students in our Faith Formation Room. This is the perfect opportunity to pause in the middle of the week to reflect on God's word and what He is doing in our lives. It offers everyone a safe and friendly environment to grow in faith and fellowship. All are welcome.

After prayerful consideration and consultation with our members, we have decided that due to the increase in the cases of the COVID infections, this month's Monday evening and Tuesday meetings will be held on Zoom, while our Wednesday group will continue to meet in the Franciscan Rooms. Masks and social distancing will be required for our Wednesday on-site gatherings. The safety of our members and their families are our primary concern. These decisions have been made out of love and an abundance of caution.

PRAYER, READINGS & WORSHIP

Entrance: Praise to the Lord - LOBE DEN HERREN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the king of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
Come, all who hear: Now to his altar draw near, Joining in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who shall prosper our work and defend us;
Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend us.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do, Who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the "Amen" sound from his people again, Now as we worship before him!

Gloria: Mass of Saint Ann - Ed Bolduc

Reading I: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch.

Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory;
you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.

You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God.

No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused."

For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse.

As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 96 - Cooper Ray/Owen Alstott

R: Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

PRAYER, READINGS & WORSHIP

Gospel Acclamation: Mass of Saint Ann – Ed Bolduc

R: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

V: God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel: John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Preparation of the Gifts: Overflow – Matt Maher

Your grace is power, your will forever, Your love is a river; overflow in me.

Your word: true presence. Your body: our recompense. Your blood: salvation; overflow in me.

Refrain

Overflow in me, my Lord, overflow in me, my Lord.
Let your people bless you as your cup is poured;
Overflow in me, my Lord, overflow in me, my Lord.

Your worship of you, its your gift to us from you. No one could give this gift but you; overflow in me.

11:15 am Choir Mass – Gracious Spirit, Dwell with Me – K. Lee Scott

Gracious Spirit, dwell with me, I would gracious be; help me know Thy grace to see, I would be like Thee; and, with words that help and heal, Thy life would mine reveal; and, with actions, bold and meek for Christ my Savior speak.

Truthful Spirit, dwell with me, I would truthful be; help me now Thy truth to see, I would be like Thee; and, with wisdom kind and clear, Thy life in mine appear; and, with actions lovingly, speak Christ's sincerity.

Holy Spirit, dwell with me, I would holy be; show thy mercy tenderly, make me more like thee; separate from sin I would and cherish all things good, and whatever I can be give Him who gave me Thee.

Mighty Spirit, dwell with me, I would mighty be, help me now thy power to see, I would be like Thee; 'gainst all weapons hell can wield, be Thou my strength and shield; let Thy word my weapon be, Lord, Thine the victory.

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass for Our Lady of Light – Jesse Manibusan

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER, READINGS & WORSHIP

Communion: One Love Released - Robert H. Frenzel and Kevin Keil

Refrain

One bread, one body, one cup, one call, one faith, one Spirit present in us all.

One prayer, one blessing, one hope, one peace, one church, one people, one love released.

Is not this bread we share, the body of our Lord?
Is not this wine we drink, the blood of Christ outpoured?

I am the bread of life, eat and you shall live.
To those who share this meal, my strength I'll always give.

I am the living bread, as manna from the sky.
This bread I give to you, that you may never die.

No one will come to me, unless our God has led.
And I shall raise them up, raise them from the dead!

Meditation: God with Us - Sarah Hart

You are higher than all of our questions, you are deeper than all of our needs, wider than all that we can imagine; you are greater than anything.

You are stronger than all of our burdens, you are sweeter than all of our dreams, closer than all the air that surrounds us; you are greater than anything.

Refrain

You are holy, Holy God Almighty, God with us.
You are holy, Holy God Almighty, God with us. God with us.

You bring joy into all of our sadness, you bring peace into all of our pain, shining light into all of our darkness; you are greater than anything.

11:15am Choir Mass - O esca viatorum - Henrich Isaac (1450-1517)

O food of men wayfaring, the bread of angels sharing, O Manna from on high!

We hunger; Lord, supply us, nor thy delights deny us, whose hearts to thee draw nigh.

Sending Forth: God We Praise You - NETTLETON

God, we praise you! God, we bless you! God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship, Father, by your church adored:
All creation shows your glory, Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing 'Holy, holy, holy, Lord of hosts, and God alone!'

True apostles, faithful prophets, Saints who set their world ablaze,
Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded, Join one growing song of praise,
While your church on earth confesses One majestic Trinity:
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, God, our hope eternally.
