A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said
"If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him,

FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

On Wednesday, February 14, a large number of people will come to church throughout our country and throughout the world. Some will be regular churchgoers and others will not. All will be coming because it is Ash Wednesday. They will receive blessed ashes on their forehead and hear the words, "Repent and believe in the Gospel." (Mk. 1:15) Although the ashes will be the most prominent feature of the service, the words are by far the most important thing. They are part of the inaugural message of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark.

Given those words of the Lord, the ritual of receiving ashes implies that we have something to repent of. The season of Lent calls us to identify what habitual ways of thinking, speaking, and acting we must change if we are truly to be followers of Christ. None of us are perfect, so if we are honest with ourselves, we will be able to identify how the Lord is calling us to change. In making this change, we are strengthened and helped by the three classic practices of Lent, as described by Jesus in Mt. 6:1-18. They are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

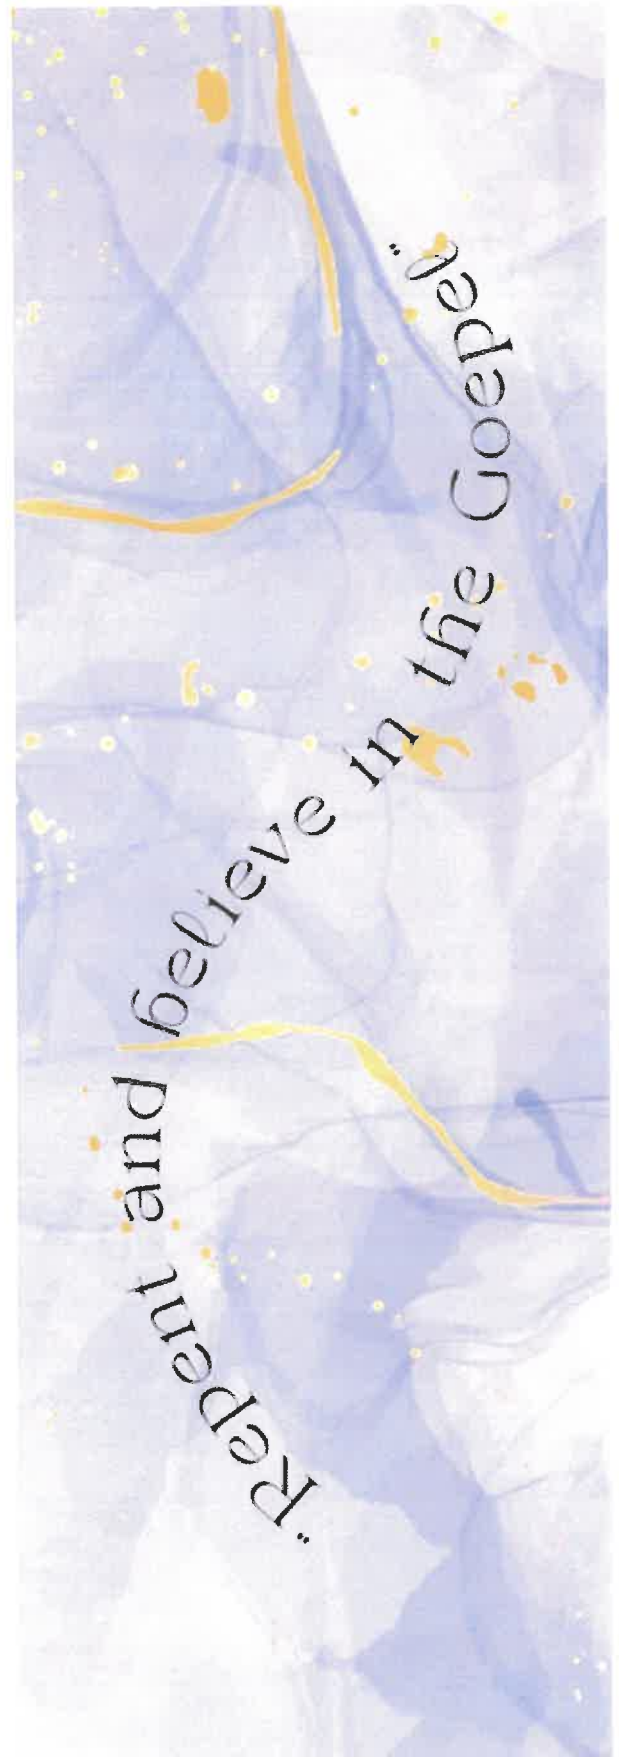

Prayer during Lent might mean taking the Scriptures in hand more regularly and thoughtfully, listening to what God is saying to us and responding wholeheartedly. It might include participating in Mass on weekdays. There are any number of other devotions, readings, and spiritual practices that can lift our minds and hearts to the Lord in prayer.

Fasting during Lent is what people mean when they talk about "giving something up" for Lent. It could be giving up some type of food, or it could be cutting back on the use of social media and our screen time, or doing without something else that we like, as a means of strengthening our discipline and focusing more attention on the Lord.

Almsgiving during Lent turns us out of ourselves and calls on us to give to others generously. There are many outreach activities in the parish that can help us channel our resources to others in need. There are also, undoubtedly, people in our lives who are in need of our kindness—whether it be a smile, a listening ear, or a little help in one way or another.

Let's remember that whatever we do during Lent is meant to bring us closer to the Lord, and to help us live out his Gospel message. The depth of our joy at Easter will be determined by our closeness to the Lord during Lent. Let's make the most of this season of grace!

Fr. Philip

SSJ Mission Outreach— Lenten Preparation 2024

The season of Lent begins Ash Wednesday and our first collection will be for Share Ourselves. Share Ourselves is a nationally recognized healthcare organization that believes everyone deserves access to quality healthcare. Standing as a beacon of compassion particularly for their low-income neighbors and those facing the challenges of homelessness, Share Ourselves provides medical, dental, behavioral health, and social services to the surrounding community. And because Share Ourselves understands that true health encompasses more than just medical or dental care, their food pantry provides healthy food for the hungry and food insecure.

Share Ourselves distributes 450 bags of food daily and the need for nonperishable and not-expired food items is great. As a corporal act of mercy, please consider donating canned proteins, canned fruit and vegetables, beans, rice, and pasta to help feed an individual or family in need. Please bring your donations to the Mission Outreach Table in Mondor Plaza the weekend of February 17th & 18th.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food."

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul Saints Simon and Jude Conference Annual Report, Oct. 1, 2022 – Sept. 30, 2023

Brothers and sisters in Christ, last year your Saints Simon & Jude conference of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul continued serving the Lord by helping local families, our brothers and sisters living in cars and on the streets, and others in need. Our mission is to grow spiritually by seeing the face of Christ in those we serve. Our members listen to, weep with, console, and pray with those who need to be loved. They are a blessing to us.

Vincentian volunteers provided food, clothing, gasoline, bus passes, utility payments, rent, lodging, and resource referrals according to the needs of each of those served. Vincentian volunteers logged over 3,695 service hours and 7,846 miles. Our SSJ conference supported upper councils of the Society, allowing them to assist many others in need and also providing wildfire and disaster relief. Volunteers distributed Christmas baskets of food and gift cards serving many families and children within our local area.

Members of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, and those whom we are privileged to serve, would like to thank you for your prayers, financial contributions, and support. It is only through your kindness and generosity that we are able to care for so many within our surrounding community.

We welcome any parishioners who might need assistance. We can be reached by calling the help line at (714) 964-5818. We also invite you to join us in our mission of serving the Lord by helping our sisters and brothers. If you are called to serve, you may contact the Society through the church office or the help line.

Thank you and God bless you!

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Entrance: In This Place – Trevor Thomson, Victoria Thomson

We are all hungry people, we need shelter and strength.
We are one in our hurting, we are one in our pain.
In our suffering and sadness, we are saved by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Reading I: Lv 13:1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head.

"The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 32 – Owen Alsott

Reading II: 1 Cor 10:31–11:1

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation: Mass of Saint Ann – Ed Bolduc

V: A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people.

Gospel: Mk 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

Preparation of the Gifts: O Come to the Altar - Chris Brown, Mack Brock, Steven Furtick

Are you hurting and broken within, overwhelmed by the weight of your sin?
Jesus is calling.
Have you come to the end of yourself, do you thirst for a drink from the well?
Jesus is calling

Leave behind your regrets and mistakes.
Come today; there's no reason to wait.
Jesus is calling.
Bring your sorrows and trade them for joy;
from the ashes a new life is born.
Jesus is calling.

11:15am Mass: There Is a Balm in Gilead - William L. Dawson

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole; there is a balm in Gilead, To heal the sin sick soul. Sometimes I feel discouraged, and think my work's in vain, but then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again. if you cannot sing like angels, if you cannot preach like Paul, you can tell the love of Jesus, and say "He died for all."

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass of Saint Ann - Ed Bolduc

Communion: In Every Age - Janèt Sullivan Whitaker

Long before the mountains came to be and the land and sea and stars of the night, through the endless seasons of all time, you have always been,
you will always be.

Refrain

In ev'ry age, O God, you have been our refuge.
In ev'ry age, O God, you have been our hope.

Destiny is cast, and at your silent word we return to dust and scatter to the wind.

A thousand years are like a single moment gone,
as the light that fades at the end of day.

Teach us to make use of the time we have.
Teach us to be patient even as we wait.
Teach us to embrace our ev'ry joy and pain.
To sleep peacefully, and to rise up strong.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Meditation: Beautiful Is Your Love - Josh Blakesely

Oh how beautiful is your love for me. Oh what joy is mine in this mystery.
I will not fear the dark, here in the presence of your heart.
Oh how beautiful is your love.

Oh how wonderful is your love for me:
Lamb laid down for me on compassion's tree.
How could I turn away from the mercy of your face?
Oh how wonderful is your love.

Refrain

Jesus, Jesus! Oh how beautiful is your love!
Jesus, Jesus! Oh how beautiful is your love!

So miraculous is your sacrifice: body broken here that I might have life.
Take everything I own; let me be yours alone. So miraculous is your love.

11:15am Mass: God So Loved the World - Bob Chilcott

God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whoso believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
