FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

By now, I'm sure you have heard of "Artificial Intelligence," abbreviated as "AI": the latest development in computer science which enables a computer to perform human-like tasks. This week I decided to put Artificial Intelligence to the test. I opened ChatGPT, an application which uses AI, and I gave it the instruction, "Write an inspiring paragraph about the season of Lent for the bulletin of a Catholic parish." Here's what I got:

"As we embark upon the sacred season of Lent, let us open our hearts to the transformative power of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. This forty-day journey invites us to reflect on our lives, to deepen our relationship with God, and to grow in love and compassion towards one another. In the quiet moments of prayer, may we find solace and guidance, drawing closer to the source of all grace. Through fasting, may we detach ourselves from worldly distractions and focus on the true nourishment of our souls. And in acts of generosity and charity, may we embody the spirit of Christ, reaching out to those in need with kindness and mercy. Let us embrace this season with courage and humility, trusting in God's infinite mercy and the promise of spiritual renewal."

Well, you and I "embarked upon" the season of Lent more than a week ago, but we'll let the computer slide on that one. I like the part about "the transformative power of prayer, fasting and almsgiving"; these are indeed time-honored, Scriptural practices that are especially emphasized during Lent. I'm not a big fan of the word "journey," but that's a matter of personal taste. I do think AI is on target when it speaks about reflecting on our lives, deepening our relationship with God, and growing in charity.

But then AI goes into a series of sentences using the words "may we" again and again. Bad form! I do think it gives pretty good ideas on what prayer, fasting, and almsgiving can bring about in our lives. But then it wraps things up the same way that it began: with a sentence including the words "let us." That is so cliché! But again, to give AI its due, the need for courage, humility, and trust is good.

All in all, I don't think I'm going to ask ChatGPT to write my homilies any time soon. Is it at least a little amazing that it did make a number of good points about the season of Lent? It will be a lot more amazing if we put these things into practice. God will do wonderful things within us and through us, if we give him half a chance.

Fr. Philip

SSJ Lenten Outreach — 2nd Week of Lent

Charitable Organization and Mission: Robyne's Nest provides at-risk and homeless high school students without adequate parental support. The organization offers housing, mental health services, food, clothing, transportation, life skills, and academic assistance to help students graduate and become self-sufficient.

Pantry Items Needed:

- Peanut Butter
- Cereal/Oatmeal
- Spaghetti
- Boxed Mashed Potatoes
- Boxed Stuffing
- Refried Beans
- Canned Fruits & Veggies
- Canned Chicken
- Cans of Chili/Hearty Soups
- Jell-O
- 8-Count Box of Granola Bars

Prayer: Lord, we pray for cooperation, support and assistance for students struggling with food insecurity in our community. Isaiah 58:10 tells us that if we give of ourselves on behalf of the hungry, then our light will shine in the dark. Thank You for those who are shining lights and please help us to hear Your call to make a difference. Amen.

Almsgiving (Corporal Works of Mercy): We aim to provide 600 food bags to low-income students for Spring break. Please donate any listed items, avoiding glass or expired items. Your donations may be dropped off at the Mission Outreach table in Mondor Plaza on March 2nd & 3rd. Donations to secure gift cards are needed and can be made at www.robynest.org.

Works of Love (Spiritual Works of Mercy) for the youth served at Waymakers Huntington Beach Youth Shelter: Drop off lunch or dinner, homecooked or purchased from a restaurant (pizza or In-N-Out is a real treat!) for the youth to enjoy. For more information, stop by the Mission Outreach Table after Mass on March 2nd or 3rd.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Entrance: Attende Domine - arr. Trevor Thomson

One thing I ask, O Lord, this I seek: to dwell forever in your house, that I may gaze on your loveliness all the days of my life.

O great Redeemer, King of all creation,
As we are sinners, we deserve your judgement:
Jesus, be gracious; hear our prayer of sorrow.

Exalted Savior, Cornerstone of heaven,
Gate of salvation, Way to life immortal:
Send forth your Spirit; heal your humbled people!

Penitential Act: Kyrie Litany of Praise - Bob Hurd

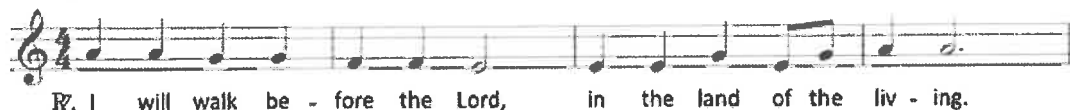

Reading I: Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing— all this because you obeyed my command."

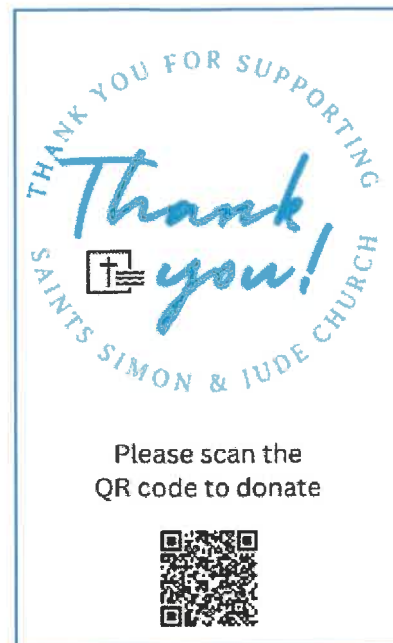

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 116 - Owen Alstott

Reading II: Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Gospel Acclamation: Lenten Gospel Acclamation

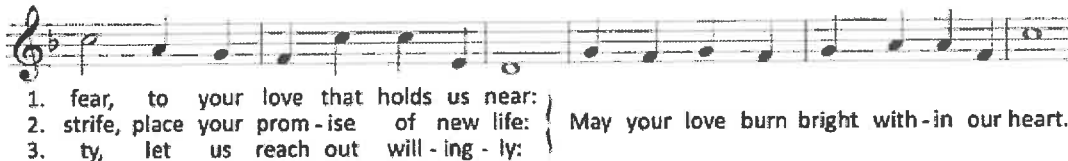

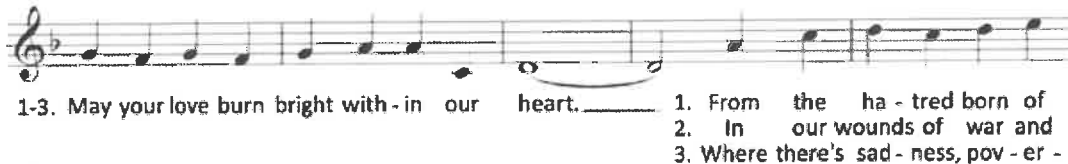

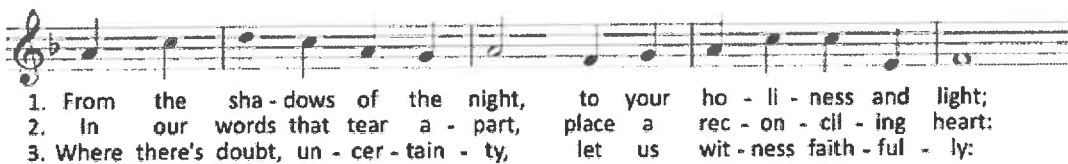

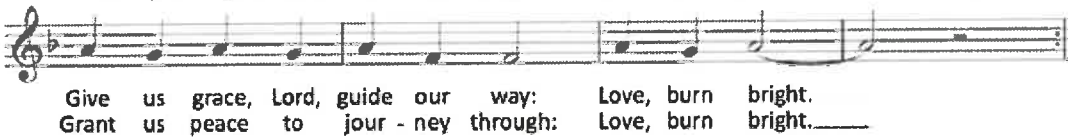

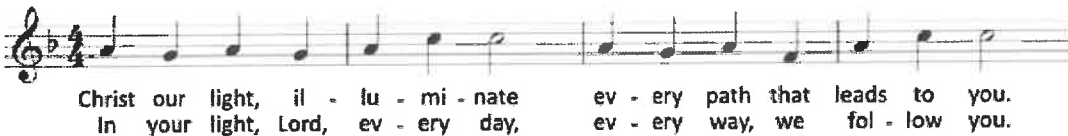

V: From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard: This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Gospel: Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Preparation of the Gifts: Love, Burn Bright - Chris de Silva

11:15am Mass: O Nata Lux - Tom Porter

O light born of light, Jesus redeemer of the world, gently consider your suppliant's praises and prayers which they offer. You who once considered it right to be clothed in flesh for sinners, Grant us to be made limbs of your blessed body.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

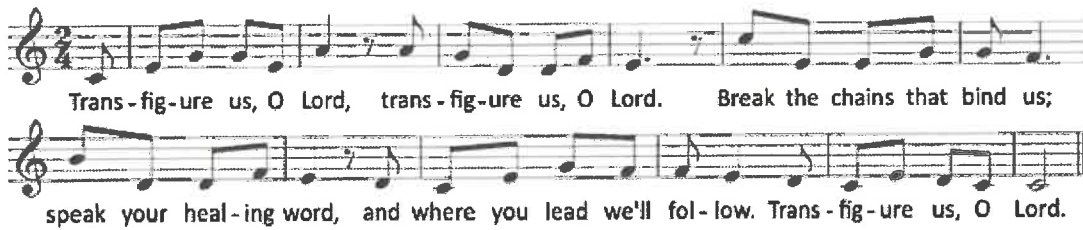

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass of Saint Mary Magdalene – Sarah Hart

Communion: Transfigure Us, O Lord – Bob Hurd

Down from heights of glory into the depths below, the love of God self-emptied, the love of God to show.
You light the path before us, the way that we must go.

Light for those in darkness, the hungry have their fill, glad tidings for the humble, the healing of all ills;
in these we glimpse your glory, God's promises fulfilled.

Pardon for the sinner, a shepherd for the sheep, a drink of living water for all who thirst and seek, and feasting at your table, the lowly and the least.

To the holy city, Jerusalem, you go; your face set toward the ending, the cross to be your throne.
Shall we journey with you and share your paschal road?

Meditation: Be Thou My Vision – SLANE

Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; naught be all else to me, save that Thou art:
Thou my best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my wisdom, and Thou my true word; I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord:
Thou my great Father, I Thy true son, Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, or man's empty praise, Thou mine inheritance, now and always:
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart, High King of heaven, my treasure Thou art.

High King of heaven, my victory won, may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heav'n's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

11:15am Mass: Heavenly Light – Alexander Kopylov (1854-1911)

Sent from heaven, thy rays were given on great and small to shine, O Light Divine! May each soul in sorrow's night see the heavenly light! Thou blessing to all creation, lead us to our salvation! All those whose feet may falter, lead unto the sacred altar! Oh, shine from above, Divine Light of love! Show us the way unto our God, we pray! Thou beacon and guide shalt be! Divine Light, we praise Thee!

Sending Forth: Christ In Me Arise – Trevor Thomson

Be now my vision; open these eyes, showing me all that I must see.
Onward to the kingdom, you are the way. Arise in me and I shall rise with you.
