FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

PASTORAL SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for supporting last year's Pastoral Services Appeal! Your continued generosity towards this appeal resulted in $106,841 in rebates to the parish from the collective efforts of 442 families. These rebates mean that all funds are in place for the church sound system project. Project contractors are in place as we finalize plans for the city permitting process.

Our PSA goal this year remains at $209,000. To date, 73 families have pledged $41,500 with $25,000 in paid donations. We are on the way of meeting our goal, but we have a ways to go, $167,500 to be exact. Please consider donating to this fund on behalf of our parish. All funds received in excess of our goal return to the parish for our use.

PSA donations from our goal are pooled with other parishes throughout our Diocese and fund ministries including Catholic education, Catholic Charities of Orange County, seminarian formation, vocations and priest retirement. To view a video from Bishop Kevin Van and Catholic Charities, please visit this site: <https://www.rcbo.org/psa/>

Rebates to the parish are important as they act as an annual parish fundraising campaign. We historically fund larger capital projects with these rebates to help provide for current as well as future needs of our parish. In the past 15 years, rebates have helped to fund the substantial renovation of the church, the complete renovation of the parking lot and infrastructure, the redesign of the church sound/video systems and funding for a master campus plan. All of these projects help us meet current as well as future needs.

This year's rebates will help to continue our landscape work throughout our grounds with a focus on eco-friendly plants and materials that will help us to reduce our water usage. We are fortunate to have significant grounds that help and enhance our parish ministries. Care of these areas are ongoing and updates will help us to conserve current and future resources.

Please consider donating to the 2024 PSA fund. Donations may be made online at the above diocesan website or by sending a check to the parish. More information can be found in fliers located in the bulletin holders at the church entrances.

Thank you in advance for your generous support.

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David. (1 Sm 16:13)

Second Reading: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light." (Eph 5:14)

Gospel: He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" — which means Sent — . So he went and washed, and came back able to see. (Jn 9:6-7)

Charitable Organization and Mission: Mercy House provides services for the homeless populations of Orange County. Their goal is to end the cycle of homelessness for those who enter their system of care. Mercy House is grounded in the belief that every person is born with inherent dignity and that homelessness is an affront to that dignity.

Almsgiving (Corporal Works of Mercy): Mercy House needs Welcome Home Baskets for their clients transitioning into permanent housing. Prayerfully consider filling a laundry basket with some or all of the items from the list to the left. Please bring your gifts to the Mission Outreach table in Mondor Plaza March 9th or 10th.

Works of Love (Spiritual Works of Mercy): Make one of the residents at Thomas House feel special on their birthday by baking or donating a birthday cake. For more information, stop by the Mission Outreach Table after Mass on March 9th or 10th.

Prayer: O Lord, look with compassion on those without a place to live; restore them, we pray to a home of their own. Give us a kind heart to help the homeless in need. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Entrance: Save Your People - Jim Farrell

One thing I ask, O Lord, this I seek: to dwell forever in your house, that I may gaze on your loveliness all the days of my life.

For you will hide me in the shelter of your wings and from the arrows of my foes.
You set me high on a mountaintop, saved me from my distress.

Penitential Act: Kyrie Litany of Praise - Bob Hurd

Reading I: Ex 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?" So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!" The LORD answered Moses, "Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD in our midst or not?"

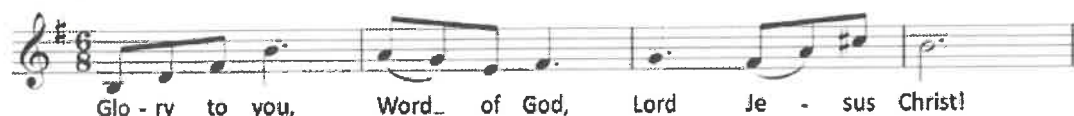

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 95 - Owen Alstott

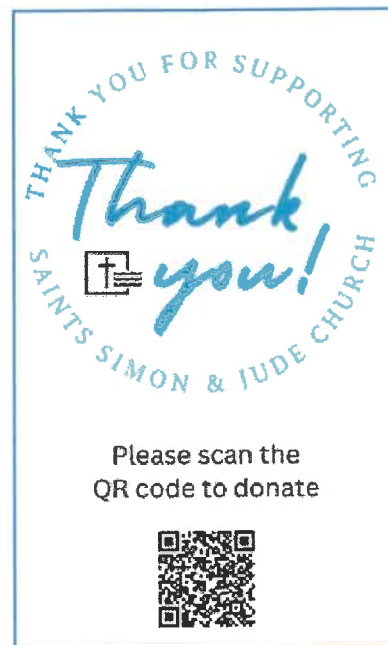

Reading II: Rom 5:1-2, 5-8

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel Acclamation: Lenten Gospel Acclamation

V: Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world; give me living water, that I may never thirst again.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Gospel: Jn 4:5-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go call your husband and come back." The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus answered her, "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' For you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true." The woman said to him, "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you." At that moment his disciples returned, and were amazed that he was talking with a woman, but still no one said, "What are you looking for?" or "Why are you talking with her?" The woman left her water jar and went into the town and said to the people, "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?" They went out of the town and came to him. Meanwhile, the disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." So the disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work. Do you not say, 'In four months the harvest will be here'? I tell you, look up and see the fields ripe for the harvest. The reaper is already receiving payment and gathering crops for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper can rejoice together. For here the saying is verified that 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the work, and you are sharing the fruits of their work." Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

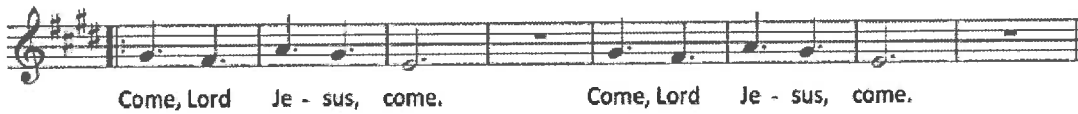

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

PRAYERS, READINGS & WORSHIP

Preparation of the Gifts: All Who Are Thirsty – Benton Brown and Glenn Robertson

All who are thirsty, all who are weak, come to the fountain, dip your heart in the stream of life.
Let the pain and the sorrow be washed away in the waves of his mercy.
As deep cries out to deep, we sing:

11:15am Mass: Sicut cervus – Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525 –1594)

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God.

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass of Saint Mary Magdalene – Sarah Hart

Communion: In Every Age – Janèt Sullivan Whitaker

Long before the mountains came to be and the land and sea and stars of the night, through the endless seasons of all time, you have always been, you will always be.

Refrain

In ev'ry age, O God, you have been our refuge.
In ev'ry age, O God, you have been our hope.

Destiny is cast, and at your silent word we return to dust and scatter to the wind.
A thousand years are like a single moment gone, as the light that fades at the end of day.

Teach us to make use of the time we have. Teach us to be patient even as we wait.
Teach us to embrace our ev'ry joy and pain. To sleep peacefully, and to rise up strong.

Meditation: Gracious God – Jesse Manibusan

Lead us, Lord, into the desert; lead us through the wilderness.
Through this journey we will follow, for we long to see your face.

In this time of sacred struggle, in this time of sacrifice,
we rejoice, for we remember that you lead us into life.

Refrain

Gracious God, mercy is your name. Redeeming Love, you give your life away.
Gracious God, we bless your holy name. Receiving love, we give our lives away.

Lord, we hunger for your presence; Lord, we're thirsting for your grace.
When consuming all but you, Lord, all we gain is emptiness.

Teach us, Lord: who is our neighbor? Is it friend, or enemy?
When we welcome or condemn them, it is you, O let us see.

11:15am Mass: Lead Me, Lord – Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

*Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before my face.
For it is thou, Lord, thou, Lord only, that makest me dwell in safety.*

Sending Forth: Led by the Spirit - KINGSFOLD

Led by the Spirit, now draw near the waters of rebirth
With hearts that long to worship God in spirit and in truth.
"Whoever drinks the drink I give shall never thirst again."
Thus says the Lord who died for us, our Savior, kin and friend.

Led by the Spirit, now sing praise to God the Trinity:
The Source of Life, the living Word made flesh to set us free,
The Spirit blowing where it will to make us friends of God:
This myst'ry far beyond our reach, yet near in healing love.
