FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Hey Y'all,

It's still Easter Season and on Sundays we're reading through the Gospel according to John. Last week we heard Jesus say, "I am the good Shepherd". This 5th Sunday of Easter we'll hear Jesus teach, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower". There are seven of these "I am" statements presented to us by Jesus in John's Gospel. These statements indicate roles or titles or metaphors that give us a better insight to just who this Jesus is. Any slightly educated person hanging around a synagogue or in the Temple in Jerusalem would make a mental connection. These "I am" statements of Jesus are making a direct correlation to the name that God Himself gave to Moses in Exodus 3:14, "I AM who AM". Could it be that Jesus was connecting Himself to the Divine, to the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Moses? Yes, very definitely could be.

Now, everything I have just written may be already know to you. Maybe you've heard about this in other homilies, or in a Bible study somewhere. That's fine. We should continue to think about the meaning of Jesus' seven self-proclaimed titles. They tell us a lot about Jesus, the Christ. But I'll take it one step further. These "I am" statements always have a relational aspect that turns the question back on us, the hearers of Jesus' words.

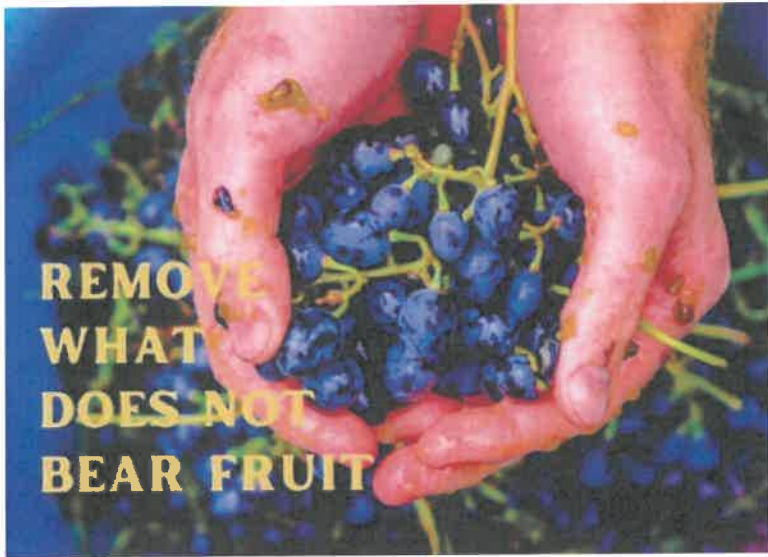

Notice that today Jesus slips in a phrase that's easy to pass over: "Remain in me, as I remain in you". Wow, that turns the spotlight from the "True Vine" to all of us.

We'll now have to ask ourselves just exactly how does Jesus remain in me? And what does it mean for you and me to remain in Jesus? I suppose if one has got an active devotional life of prayer and study they're seeking to remain in Jesus. But are they producing fruit? That fruit thing seems to be the litmus test.

So, join me in thinking about what it is for us to remain in Jesus. And let's intentionally invite Jesus to remain with us. And as we do so, let's figure out how to give witness, beating fruit for the knowledge and love of God.

God bless,

AROUND THE COMMUNITY

POLAND CHUCK DYER

The two Poland mission trips I participated in with SSJ have been impactful. Last year's trip was a new experience for me since I had not been across the pond before. We learned about our Polish and Ukrainian neighbors, served them, saw several holy sites, and ate some excellent food. This year was different but equally fulfilling. After having some time to think about it, 'meeting God' is a good description for this recent trip, at least for me.

Even though we see God here at home, it was encouraging to travel across the world and see that God is also there, dynamic, and hard at work (not surprising!). He is working in the congregation and leadership at Ostoja, the church we stayed at in Opole. He is among the people that work at and attend the Dom Nadziei (House of Hope) drop-in center. His glory is on spectacular display in the churches and museums we visited. His sacrifice is beautifully depicted in the various places that had Stations of the Cross monuments. And He was intimately present in the communion and other worship services we attended. Whether it was in the joy of the children's activities, eating a meal with the homeless, a spiritual experience in an empty, plain (by Polish standards) church, being brought to tears by Jesus' words spoken to St. Faustina, or just happening to have perfect timing in a chance meeting with the director of a Caritas facility – it is obvious that we cannot go anywhere and not find God.

"Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend to heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the dawn, if I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me." Psalm 139:7-10

And of course, the food was still excellent.

Reading I: Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus.

The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 118 - Owen Alstott

✠. I will praise you, Lord, in the as - sem - bly of your peo - ple.

Reading II: 1 Jn 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

V: Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us; make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

Gospel: Jn 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

Bridge

And the first shall be last, and our eyes are opened, and we'll hear like never before.
 And we'll speak in new ways, and we'll see God's face in places we've never known.

11:15 Mass: I Am the Vine - Mark Bender

I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass of Joy and Peace - Tony Alonso

St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes was a teenage Chilean Carmelite novice. Although she died of typhoid when she was 19, she proved that one's life doesn't have to be particularly long and filled with lofty accomplishments to be an amazing example of the love of Christ.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion: In the Breaking of the Bread - Bob Hurd

Refrain

In the breaking of the bread we have known him; we have been fed.
Jesus the stranger, Jesus the Lord, be our companion; be our hope.

Bread for the journey, strength for our years, manna of ages, of struggle and tears.
Cup of salvation, fruit of the land, bless and receive now, the work of our hands.

Bread of the promise, people of hope, wine of compassion, life for the world.
Gathered at table, joined as his body sealed in the Spirit, sent by the Word.

Sending Forth: Lead Me, Lord - John Becker

Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God's coming kingdom shall be theirs.
Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Refrain

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth; be my life, my Lord, and lead me, Lord, today.

Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs, and the pure in heart shall see their God.
Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill, for I say they shall be satisfied.
